

Back-to-School Conversation Starters

To use these conversation starters:

- Find a relaxed time when you can give your full attention, such as after dinner, or at some other quiet time.
- Skip questions your kids don't want to answer or don't understand.
- Make sure to not force a discussion; stop asking questions when they are ready.

<input type="radio"/>	1. What is your favorite memory from this summer?

<input type="radio"/>	2. What is the best thing about school?

<input type="radio"/>	3. What do you do when someone makes fun of other kids at school?

<input type="radio"/>	4. What do you like most about yourself?

<input type="radio"/>	5. If you could make a rule for your classroom, what would it be?

<input type="radio"/>	6. What are you most excited about learning this year?

Back-to-School Conversation Starters (cont.)

7. What's your favorite thing to do at school?

8. What do you hope to get better at this year?

9. Which friend are you most excited to see again?